

EURONAV FILES REGISTRATION STATEMENT FOR PROPOSED INITIAL PUBLIC OFFERING IN THE USA

ANTWERP, Belgium, 8 September 2014 – Euronav NV (Euronext Brussels: EURN), or Euronav, today announces that it filed a Registration Statement on Form F-1 with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission for a proposed initial public offering of its ordinary shares in the United States of America.

The Company's ordinary shares are currently listed on Euronext Brussels. An application has been made to also list the ordinary shares that will be offered in connection with the F-1 on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol "EURN."

Deutsche Bank Securities, Citigroup, J.P. Morgan and Morgan Stanley are acting as joint book-running managers and as representatives of the underwriters for the proposed initial public offering in the United States.

The registration statement has been filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission but has not yet become effective. These securities may not be sold nor may offers to buy be accepted prior to the time the registration statement becomes effective.

This press release does not constitute an offer to sell or a solicitation of an offer to buy, nor shall there be any sale of these securities in any state or jurisdiction in which such an offer, solicitation or sale would be unlawful prior to registration or qualification under the securities laws of any such state or jurisdiction.

The offering will be made only by means of a prospectus. When available, copies of the preliminary prospectus related to the initial public offering in the United States may be obtained from:
